FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Connor Dickerson and Abby Urban each earned high point awards and won multiple individual state championships to lead the Wyoming Waves to a third place team finish during the Wyoming Winter State Swimming Championships in Gillette last weekend.

Dickerson, the boys' 13-14 high-point champion, won individual championships in the 50,100 and 200 freestyle events, 100 and 200 breaststroke, 200 I.M. and 200 backstroke events.

Urban, the girls' 11-12 high-point award winner, won championships in the 50, 100 and 200 freestyle, 50 and 100 backstroke and 100 I.M.

Tyler Johnson was the only other Wave to win an individual championship, winning the 50 freestyle in the boys' 15-16 age group.

The Waves finished third behind Gillette and Laramie.
